

Booking Jan as a Speaker

Jan is an experienced and competent speaker with many events under her belt, from small bookgroups to appearances at formal speaker meetings, whether it be the WI or a specialist interest group.

Here are some of the comments from attendees.

“Jan was a really funny speaker, one of the best we’ve had.”

“The talk was fascinating, we learned a great deal because Jan brought the subject to life.”

“That was a great evening, with a great speaker.
Jan is an inspiration”

Jan has her own projector and screen.

Her talks last for approximately forty minutes and are power point presentations quite often with giveaways and items for sale.

Jan always ensures she has plenty of books for signing. Copies of the books are £10.00 with 1p of every sale donated to charity.

Fees vary dependant on audience size and expenses are applied for venues over ten miles away from Jan’s base in the Cotwolds.

For more information please call 01993 832357
or email janharveyauthor@btinternet.com